Kids' Story & Craft Hour - The Giant Spruce with John Duvall

Sunday, December 15, 2019

10:00 AM – 11:00 AM

Google Calendar · ICS

Join us for Sunday morning story hour with local author John Duvall! John will read from his award-winning children's book, The Great Spruce.

The Great Spruce is perfect for children ages 5 to 8, but all ages (with adult supervision) are welcome. Parents, enjoy coffee, snacks, and drinks from the bar while your little ones are entertained!

RSVPs via Eventbrite are not required nor do they guarantee a seat, but they are much appreciated; they help us stay in touch with you in the event of a change, and they give us an idea of how many people to expect. Thank you and please spread the word! RSVP here!

About The Great Spruce:

Alec loves to climb trees--the little apple trees, the wide willow trees, even the tall locust trees. But his favorite is the great spruce, with its sturdy trunk and branches that stretch up to the sky. Alec's grandpa planted it as a sapling years and years before Alec was born, and every Christmas, Alec and his grandpa decorate the tree together, weaving tinsel and lights through its branches, making it shine bright.

But one day, a few curious men from the nearby city take notice of Alec's glistening great spruce, and ask to take it away for their Christmas celebration. Though it's a huge honor, Alec's heartbroken at the idea of losing his friend. With great courage and creativity, Alec comes up with a plan to save his favorite tree in this joyful holiday tale.
